MUSÉE
CANADIEN
DE L'HISTOIRE

Breathtaking setting. Majestic architecture. Fascinating exhibitions.

Housed in a scenic riverfront building designed by Indigenous architect Douglas Cardinal, the Museum is one of Canada's most popular and introduces visitors to 15,000 years of social and human history – including compelling personal stories; Indigenous cultures, histories and achievements; thought-provoking international exhibitions; and play-based learning at the Children's Museum.

► FEATURED EXHIBITIONS

THE CANADIAN HISTORY HALL

Experience Canada's history in exciting new ways.

This groundbreaking exhibition traces Canada's history, from the dawn of human habitation to the present day. Authentic artifacts and stories are explored through various lenses as you encounter the events, movements and personalities that have shaped our nation, and whose influence on our lives can still be felt today.

THE GRAND HALL

Architectural focal point of the Museum

An introduction to the histories, cultures and beliefs of Indigenous peoples on the Pacific Coast of Canada.

THE FIRST PEOPLES HALL

The histories, diversity, creativity, resourcefulness and endurance of the First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples.

THE CANADIAN STAMP COLLECTION

Every stamp issued in Canada – more than 3,000.

THE CANADIAN CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

A fun, engaging and hands-on experience for young visitors.

CINÉ+

An exciting journey through culture and history via enlightening documentary films.
